Re: Letter of Recommendation

Dear John,

It is my pleasure to write a Letter of Recommendation for Roof Services Corporation. Hourigan Construction Corp. prides itself on developing lifelong, uniquely remarkable relationships and buildings. One of the keys to accomplishing this vision is strategic partnerships with key subcontractors. You and your firm are among our most valued subcontractor relationships.

Roof Services provides quality service at every level. Your responsiveness to all areas of the process from pricing (budget & final), timely installations and superior service at every step are key elements of your success.

We have worked with Roof Services for many years and you continually demonstrate a high degree of professionalism, competency and expertise with every aspect of the project. Your commitment to professionalism and mutual success makes you a team member that stands out among the rest.

I highly recommend Roof Services Corporation and look forward to working with you on many future projects.

Sincerely,

Mark J. Hourigan
President
